PROPOSED GREATER HIGH-

At a meeting of the executive commit es of the Washington-Alexandria Grester Highway Association, beld last night at the New Willerd Hotal, Washington plans were perfected for financing the project for an improved highway between Alexandria and Washington. It was decided to begin an active canvas for tands at once.

C. H. Hoy', one of the engineers of the office of jublic roads, Depart nent of Agriculture, who has had charge since is t August of the work of surveying the route, reported that his prefor within two wicks. He placed the cost of construction of the road, which is to be 3.6 miles in length, aud 30 feet bet veen di ches, with a 20-foot driveway, at $54,164 He stat d that these figures were preliminary, and that probably they could be scaled down to $50 000.

Mr. Host has estimet d for a macadam roughed 11 inches thick, with a tar or asphalt binding, offording pract cally a dustless asphalt road. From the highway bridge to the brickyards he recomis sutjected. He proposed to use the grap to blocks that now form part of the road. For the use of farmers, merchants and sucomphilists his plan provided that pletees the list of officers for 1910. astrip of macadam 14 to 16 feet wide be laid along this distance. He thought the road could be completed within three monthe.

Mr. J. Y. Williams, of Alexandria, who presided, said that Virginia would lend all the aid possible toward building the new highway, such as furnishing convict labor, if this could be used; get og the material hau'ed by the railroads at reduced rates, and the free use of railread sidings.

The committees believe $10,000 toward the proposed work can be taised in Alexandria c ty and county. The finance committee of the association has u der consideration a p'an to raise the remainder of the sum mecessary to complete the highway.

Chairman Williems deferred the arnen remeat of the completed committee on figance until a comm tee, consisting of H. A. Colman, A. D. Brockett and Ribert Eili t. shall have conferred with the officers of the Washington Board of Trade and Chamber of Com-

The finance committee was authorized to obtain pledges of contrit a lons for the proposed highway, and the meeting adjourned, suffect to the call of the chale

There are ample provisions on board, but the continuous reports of heavy weather along the coast have occasioned the fears for Osptain Mitchell and his men.

FIRE AT FALLS CHURCH. A serious fire occurred Tuesday night on the place of Richard Moncure, near Falls Church. The large barn and several outhouses were destroyed and the house was in serious danger, but was saved. A large automobile that was in the barn was saved, together with all the live stock. The stable, woodhouse and chickenhouse were burned. The night was comparatively still a da I'ne of neighbors managed to keep the house wetted down, but the outside was scorched and most of the windows in one side were broken. The total damage was about $2,000. It was not known how the fire started, but it is thought to have been caused by a defective lamp in a zoom occupied by a hired man.
